RESTRICTIONS

Reminder that winter overnight parking rules go into effect on December 1, 2024, and will continue until March 31, 2025. Per City Ordinance, there is no parking on any City street or alley between those dates.

NEED TO FILE A REPORT?

Many residents do a good job keeping up the appearance of their homes and properties. However, there are properties located in Glendale that have various violations such as junk/debris or tall grass. Please be aware the City of Glendale has a Property Maintenance Code.

Chapter 15.5 was developed to prevent and correct the existence of adverse conditions and to establish certain standards relating to the appearance, maintenance, safety, and repair of all buildings and lands within the City.

A proactive approach to property maintenance by all residents will help to avoid complaints. If you feel a neighbor's property may need maintenance, you are able to file a complaint by visiting the Glendale Website ('How Do I' tab and click on 'Submit a Service Request').

The complaint will be reviewed by the Department of Public Works and the property will be analyzed for further action.

TO CALL FOR YOUR INSPECTIONS!

INSPECTIONS

What types of items require a permit?

Permits are required for: roofs, additions, kitchen and bathroom remodels, new furnaces, new air conditioning, new plumbing, and electrical. If you are planning a project and have questions about a permit, please call 414-228-1708.

When does a permit expire?

Permits expire 18 months from the date of issuance.

Do I need a final inspection?

All permits require a final inspection. If the final inspection does not occur the permit will expire, and a new permit fee is required to reopen the permit.

Who should I call for an inspection?

Often your service provider will apply for a permit. However, most of the time the service provider will not call for the final inspection. It is then the responsibility of the homeowner to call for the inspection. When working with a service provider discuss early-on who will be responsible for requesting and scheduling the final inspections.

How do I request an inspection?

Please call 262-420-4732 or email Wlinspections@safebuilt.com to request an inspection. Please have your address available and if possible, provide your permit number. Please note that the property is in Glendale. Inspections requested prior to 3:30pm can be scheduled for the following day or a day that is convenient for you.

How do I know if my service provider applied for a permit?

Ask your service provider to see a copy of the issued permit. If the provider is responsible for the final inspections, ask to see the final approved paperwork.

RIGHT-OF-WAY

The white dashes on the aerial photo represent the right-of-way for this particular property. The right-of-way allows an individual to enter your property and use it as a passageway. - Go to: <https://applications-mclio.hub.arcgis.com/>
- Click on 'Interactive Mapping App'
- Search by Address and click Aerial View

DRIVEWAY PERMITS

A permit is required when replacing a driveway approach, which is located within the City right-of-way. A sketch showing the width of the approach and a certificate of insurance listing the City of Glendale as “additionally insured” MUST be submitted with the permit application. The fee is $50 per entrance. For more information, please call (414) 228-1710.

WHY DOES A FIRE ENGINE OR LADDER TRUCK COME TO MY MEDICAL CALL?

By: Assistant Chief Dan Tyk, North Shore Fire/Rescue

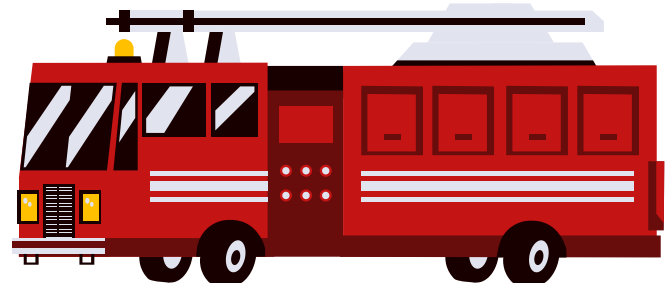

As we have started to ramp up our public education and public relations activities again in a post-pandemic world, we've made a lot of great community contacts. One question that frequently comes up is: Why does a fire engine or ladder truck come to my medical call? This is a great question and the answer is actually probably much more straightforward than you might think.

The simple answer is that all of our personnel are trained to at least the Emergency Medical Technician-Basic level (EMT-B). This means that every one of our more than 90 sworn personnel is licensed at minimum as an EMT-B in the State of Wisconsin. EMTs are trained to provide basic life support level care, including airway management, splinting and bandaging of wounds, CPR and defibrillation, bleeding control, and administration of some basic medications. These providers may be riding on one of our ambulances or even a fire engine or ladder truck.

In addition to the EMT-Bs, more than half of our personnel are trained to the Paramedic level (EMT-P). Paramedics are the highest level of pre-hospital emergency care in the area. These members are trained above the EMT-B level to provide advanced medication therapies, start and manage intravenous lines, place advanced airways, perform invasive procedures to treat a collapsed lung or remove fluid from around the heart, provide advanced assessment of cardiac rhythms and more. Like our EMT-Bs, when staffing permits you may find some of these paramedic providers riding on our fire engines or trucks in addition to on our ambulances. Additionally, more critical emergencies may require extra hands, so our dispatchers may send some additional resources (another ambulance or fire engine/truck) to the scene to assist.

Therefore, the long answer to the question at the start of the article is this: Our goal is to get the right care providers to your side during your emergency in order to begin stabilization and treatment. That may mean that the fire engine that might happen to be down the street responds in addition to our ambulance to transport you to the hospital. As an organization we pride ourselves on providing timely, patient-centered, and professional emergency care to all those who live, work and visit the seven communities we are proud to serve.

Do you have a question you'd like answered about a service or program we provide? Feel free to submit them via our website at www.nsfire.org or email dflint@nsfire.org or kwenzel@nsfire.org with your questions.

FAIR HOUSING

It is the policy of the City of Glendale to assure equal opportunity to live in adequate housing facilities regardless of race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, sex, handicap, sexual preference, marital status of persons maintaining a household, lawful source of income, place of birth, or age, and to that end, to prohibit discrimination in housing by any persons.

In connection with any real estate transaction which affects any housing accommodation on the open market, or in connection with any public sale, purchase, rental or lease of any accommodation, it is illegal within Glendale for a person, owner, financial institution, real estate broker or sales representative to:

- Refuse to sell, purchase, rent or lease to a person because of race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, handicap, marital status, sexual preference, sex, age, or place of birth.
- To discriminate against a person in the terms, conditions or privileges of the sale, purchase, rental or lease of any housing accommodation.

A complete copy of the City's fair housing ordinance may be obtained at City Hall or by calling (414) 228-1770.

Any person who has a complaint, or who may be aggrieved by any unlawful practice which is prohibited by the ordinance, may file a complaint with the Common Council within 30 days after the aggrieved person becomes aware of the alleged unlawful practice, but no more than 60 days after the alleged unlawful practice has occurred.

The City will attempt to resolve each complaint. If an acceptable resolution for both parties is not reached, the City will then forward the complaint and findings to appropriate state and federal agencies.

In addition to the local Code of Ordinances, an individual can pursue complaints under both state and federal fair housing laws. Under the Wisconsin Open Housing Law a person has one year after the last act of discrimination to file an administrative complaint with the State of Wisconsin Equal Rights Division (ERD) and one year to file a judicial complaint (lawsuit). If a person chooses to pursue a complaint through a federal administrative agency the complaint must be filed with the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) within one year of the last act of discrimination under the 1968 Federal Fair Housing Act (FFHA). To file a federal court action under the FFHA one must file the complaint within two years of the act of discrimination. In addition, under the Civil Rights Act of 1866, which only applies to racial discrimination, a person has up to three years to file a judicial complaint.

Additional contact telephone numbers for complaints include the Metropolitan Milwaukee Fair Housing Council (414-278-1240), the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (414-297-3214, Ext. 8300 or 8301), or the State of Wisconsin Equal Rights Division (414-227-4384).
